LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS FOR CEU SAN PABLO UNIVERSITY

Accreditation of linguistic competence in Spanish and English

All candidates are obliged to complete a Spanish test and an English test as part of the admission process.

The result will be selective depending on the language in which you will study at the University.

- Degrees taught in Spanish: the result of the Spanish test will be selective. All the degrees taught in Spanish require a B2 level (except for the Degree in Physiotherapy taught in Spanish). The result of the English test will be informative.
- Degrees taught in English: the result of the English test will be selective. . All the degrees taught in English require a B2 level. The result of the Spanish test will be informative.
- Degrees taught in English and Spanish: both results of Spanish and English test will be selective. The required level of Spanish and English is B2.
- Degree in Physiotherapy (taught in Spanish): the result of the Spanish test will be selective. The level required is a B2 level (or B1 with the commitment to reach B2 level within 1 year). The result of the English test will be informative.

 English speaking candidates will be exempted from submitting an English certificate or taking the language competence test in English.*
